Chamber of Commerce Report

The Greenbrier Chamber of Commerce welcomed many new members over the last month. The New Employee Lunch for those new to the Greenbrier School District was on Aug. 15, with the Back to School Breakfast and Expo on the 16th. There were over 60 vendors, with over $3500 in door prizes given out. Kona Ice was the Business of the Month for August. There were several events such as the Back to School Bash in Matthews Park, and two ribbon cuttings at Jettway Performance and Memories Etched in Faith. There are several upcoming events including the ribbon cutting at Arkansas Federal Credit Union on Oct. 12, the Hometown Holiday Open House on Nov. 6, and Glisten in Greenbrier from Dec. 3-31.

The 2021 Glisten in Greenbrier also won “Festival of the Year” at the Arkansas Parks Conference.

Millage Certification

Once a year the City must verify our millage rate with the County. The millage for the City is currently set at four. There is a maximum of a millage set at five for a City to set without an election. Ty Kelso made a motion to leave the millage rate at four. Larry Johnson seconded and all voted in favor.

Mayor Hartwick reported that he went on a trip with MetroPlan to Ft. Collins, CO with 39 other mayors and city officials around the state to tour some of Ft. Collins local community infrastructure.

A motion to go into executive session was made by Mark Hardin, seconded by Richard Snuggs, and all voted in favor.

After returning from executive session, Matt Reynolds made a motion to approve the mayors recommendation. Mark Hardin seconded and all voted in favor.

Richard Snuggs made a motion to adjourn. Matt Reynolds seconded and all voted in favor.
